

UFV
Latin American Studies and
Global Development Studies present

A Brazilian Experience Fighting against Modern Slavery

For almost 20 years, Mary Ann Junho Song has worked in Brazil for the Ministry of Labour and Employment.

Please join us as she shares her engagement with issues of marginalization, invisibility and trauma, as experienced by those victimized by modern-day slavery and oppressive child labour practices.

Thursday, January 25th
11:30 am – 1:00 pm

Room B121, Abbotsford Campus