

INTERNATIONAL DAY TO ELIMINATE RACISM

MARCH 21, 2013

Guest Speaker:

Dr. Margo Tamez
UBC Okanagan

"Unsettling Borders and 'Enemies': An Indigenous Perspective"

The International Day to Eliminate Racism provides an important moment and reference point for the critical examination of international relations in the context of borders, border walls, and carceral systems in North America. By examining sovereignty as the tool for delineating peoples as opposed to 'savages' and 'enemies' and for launching anti-indigenous policies for development, Tamez roots her analysis in oral histories and story from a small community along the Texas-Mexico border.

A joint round table discussion with:

Honourable, John Yap, Minister of Advanced Education, Innovation and Technology and Minister Responsible for Multiculturalism;

BC's Multicultural Advisory Council &

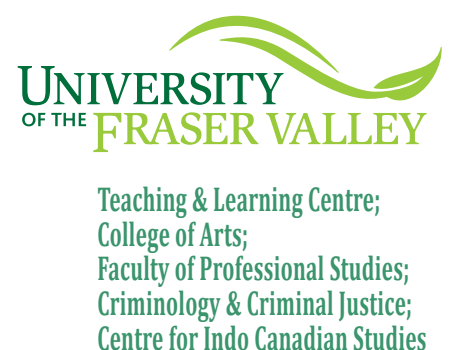

UFV's Race Anti-racism Network

12:15 PM - Lunch with council - RSVP required

1 - 4 PM - Round table, Abbotsford Campus, A225, RSVP required

email ruby.ord@ufv.ca to reserve your seat.

Sponsored by:

Teaching & Learning Centre;
College of Arts;
Faculty of Professional Studies;
Criminology & Criminal Justice;
Centre for Indo Canadian Studies